

City Prosecutor

Mission Statement

It is our mission to ethically and effectively prosecute the guilty, protect crime victims, and improve the quality of life in Long Beach. We are committed to ensuring that justice is done.

Department Goals

Overview

The City Prosecutor is responsible for the prosecution of adult misdemeanor and infraction violations of state and local law, typically about 14,000 cases each year. The City Prosecutor's Office also handles appeals and writs of habeas corpus, and drafts and renders legal opinions regarding penal ordinances.

Types of Cases Prosecuted

Cases prosecuted by the City Prosecutor range from relatively minor crimes to significant acts of violence; however, the District Attorney, not the City Prosecutor, prosecutes all felonies and juvenile cases.

Examples of some investigating and referring agencies include:

- Long Beach Police Department
- Other City Departments/Programs including: Code Enforcement, Health and Human Services Department, Animal Control, Harbor Patrol, Fire Department, Building & Safety
- CA Contractors State Licensing Board
- CA Highway Patrol
- LA Sheriff's Department
- CA Department of Fish & Game
- Cal-OSHA
- Cal-EPA
- CSU Police Department
- Other prosecuting agencies (e.g., District Attorney, Attorney General)

FY 18 Accomplishments

Priorities and Accomplishments

The Long Beach City Prosecutor's Office is true to its Mission Statement, which states, "It is our mission to ethically and effectively prosecute the guilty, protect crime victims, and improve the quality of life in Long Beach." All City Prosecutor employees recognize the duty to fairness to which we are charged: "We are committed to ensuring that justice is done."

Gang Prevention Strategies

The City Prosecutor's Office is recognized as a national leader in many respects, including the prevention and suppression of gang activity. The City Prosecutor's Gang Prevention Strategy was recognized in 2013 by Neighborhoods USA as one of the nation's "Best Neighborhood Programs." At the award presentation to City Prosecutor Doug Haubert at Neighborhoods USA's annual conference in Minneapolis, MN, the Gang Prevention Strategy was described as follows:

"In Long Beach, police and prosecutors have developed a three-part strategy that suppresses gang violence, creates community partnerships, and keeps at-risk kids in school. Combining new technology with a neighborhood-based approach, the Gang Prevention Strategy could become a model for prosecutors across the nation."

More recently, the United States Department of Justice, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, awarded a grant to the City Prosecutor's Office to expand its mission of reducing gang violence. The grant funds are working to keep chronic truants in school so they do not become gang recruits or victims of gang violence.

The City Prosecutor's Office continues to be a leader in securing court orders against gang leaders, and enforcing those orders through criminal prosecution. Working with LBPD, the City Prosecutor's Office targets the most active and dangerous gang members in a successful effort to prevent gang violence and reduce violent crimes in Long Beach.

The City Prosecutor's Office continues to secure a number of convictions against criminals who claim gang affiliation. While increasing pressure on active gang members, the City Prosecutor's Office is also working with community groups to help keep youth out of gangs and to curb gang recruitment. Additionally, efforts are made to assist former gang members get jobs or return to school.

In addition to gang prosecutions, the City Prosecutor works with the Police Department, Long Beach Unified School District, and community groups on gang prevention and anti-truancy programs. The Parent Accountability and Chronic Truancy (P.A.C.T.) Program is now in its seventh year and continues the effort to keep kids in school and out of trouble.

Criminal Justice Innovations

In addition to innovative programs aimed at reducing gang violence, the City Prosecutor's Office is a leader in creative diversion programs that will reduce crime long term, save taxpayers money, and reduce court congestion. In 2016, the office initiated the Promising Adults, Tomorrow's Hope (PATH) program to assist 16-24 year-old offenders. Diverting youthful offenders into employment services and career opportunities not only saves taxpayers money, but it helps to improve the rehabilitative outcomes for justice-involved persons.

FY 18 Accomplishments

In 2016, the City Prosecutor's Office was again recognized by Neighborhoods USA. This time, the City Prosecutor's Community Service Worker (CSW) program, was recognized as the "Best Neighborhood Program" in America. At its annual conference in Memphis, TN, NUSA recognized CSW as the Best Neighborhood Program in the Physical Revitalization category, stating:

"In Long Beach, Calif., neighborhood groups and non-profit organizations get more done in less time with help from the City's Community Service Worker program, implemented by the Long Beach City Prosecutor's Office. What started as court diversion has grown into an innovative program that beautifies and restores public areas while empowering individuals and saving taxpayers money."

The CSW program allows low level, first-time offenders to perform community labor in lieu of facing jail time or significant fines (which often go unpaid). The CSW program has saved taxpayers hundreds of thousands of dollars over the past 8 years, while beautifying and improving our public beaches, wetlands, parks, and streets.

In 2017, the City Prosecutor's Office was notified that it was selected to participate in the first State-funded pre-booking diversion program known as Law Enforcement Assisted Diversion (LEAD). The LEAD grant will provide significant resources to those detained or arrested for drug or prostitution-related offenses with the goal of providing services in lieu of the traditional criminal justice process. Data will be collected over the next two years to determine whether pre-booking LEAD diversion program is successful, and whether it can be replicated in other jurisdictions.

Environmental Prosecution

Since 2011, the City Prosecutor's Office dramatically increased its Environmental Prosecutions section. A $50,000 grant from the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation (NFWF) assisted the Office to handle environmental cases referred by the California Department of Fish and Game. Although the NFWF grant has concluded, aggressive efforts to hold accountable those who commit crimes against the environment continue.

Additionally, the City Prosecutor's Office secured what is believed to be the largest misdemeanor court fine ever in the history of the Long Beach Courthouse. Oakland-based Pacific Coast Container pleaded "no contest" to 47 misdemeanor counts and was ordered to pay fines and penalties in excess of $460,000 for transporting dangerous and overweight loads in violation of State law.

Budget Constraints

One of the most important priorities for the City Prosecutor's Office is to stabilize funding which has been significantly cut from the department in recent years. The result of these budget actions is approximately a one-third reduction in prosecutors. Future cuts could impair the department's ability to fulfill its charter-mandated duties and jeopardize public safety.

Although General Fund cuts to the City Prosecutor's Office have never been restored, the Department continues to look for new sources, such as grants and cost recovery programs, to stabilize funding so it can accomplish its duties. Innovative programs, such as the PATH diversion program, the Community Service Worker (CSW) program, and environmental prosecution each year are threatened with elimination by budget shortages.
